

Malaysia's An Honest Mistake has been nothing short of impressive ever since their debut in 2008. The band, headed up by organizer, lecturer, and musician, Darren Teh (lead vocals & rhythm guitar), may have seen quite a number of personnel changes ever since their inception, but their penchant for creating catchy earworms has remained the same - in fact, it's evolved. Completing the lineup are Tomas Tam (lead guitar), Sonny Wan (bass) and Ian Ng (drums). The band was previously part of major label, Universal Music Malaysia (2016 - 2018).

And no wonder. After five albums, countless tours including several trips to Thailand, Singapore, Indonesia, India, Korea, Taiwan and the Philippines, the band has matured to create a multi-faceted sound that can range from summery pop tunes to emotional ballads, and the odd pulse-pounding easycore song or two.

They've shared the stage with renowned international acts like Mayday Parade, Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!, Boys Like Girls, Motion City Soundtrack, and Against The Current to name a few, and the band shows no signs of stopping anytime soon.

With more material on the way that's sure to reflect their ability to go between full-on pop rock, relaxed acoustic music, and heavy hardcore--influenced tunes, it's a mistake not to catch the lads of An Honest Mistake whenever they're in a town near you.

"Goddamn...this is some great pop-punk from Malaysia"

- Riz Farooqi, Unite Asia

"...heavy with the breakdowns and college rock song structures reminiscent of early Fall Out Boy..."

- Anurag Tagat, Rolling Stone India

"...frontman of Malaysia's bubblegum punk/pop band An Honest Mistake was a bit of a natural-born superhero. The entire band had choreographed jumps that look incredible from afar, and they were very animated on stage. But the vocalist was a different league...."

- Akhil Sood, 101 India

"...imprinted with the same emo punk DNA as Yellowcard and Paramore, their sugary anthems seemingly laserfocused at teenage lovers' cardiovascular systems."

- The Star Malaysia
